

SLEUTHS' NOSES END PIPE DREAMS; EIGHT ARRESTED

Executives Scent Burning
Opium "Pills" and Lively
Raid Follows.

CAPTURE FIVE WOMEN.

And Such Fine Dreams as Two Nellies, Alice and Stella were Having!

Detectives Dusan, O'Connell and Wood of the West Thirty-seventh street station were standing in front of No. 24 West Thirty-fifth street, early today, when they began to sniff the air.

"Smells like some cooking dope," observed Dusan, who has a record for rounding up users of the "pill."

After a few more inhalations, the trio decided they would investigate and climbed the stairs in the building until they reached the flat occupied by John Tangalus, aged twenty-four, and his wife, of the same age. As they stood in the hallway, the odor of the opium was apparent and the detectives lost no time in breaking into the flat.

Occupying a Morris chair and "hitting the pipe" with all the vigor she could, the detectives saw, was Alice Eben, about forty-three years old, who says she lives at No. 29 West Forty-third street. Alice was having a delightful dream. Visions of a lobster chafing dish and bottles in buckets went before her and she was chuckling with great glee when she suddenly opened her eyes and saw the intruders.

"Ah, roll me another one," she said. "A dream like that is worth two bones any time."

On a sofa reclined Nellie Elmworth, also of No. 29 West Forty-third street. Nellie's dream was of a different sort. She thought she was young again and that the Broadway mashers were making eyes at her. By her side was a complete opium smoking outfit. He fought against being awakened by the detectives, and when finally aroused gave vent to her indignation for having her dream disturbed.

"PLEASE GO AWAY AND LET ME SLEEP"—BUT THEY DIDN'T.

"Can't a girl have a sleeper without youse bawling in?" she angrily demanded.

In another room the detectives found Stella Ward, twenty-six years old, of No. 24 West Sixteenth street, and Nellie Burns, forty-three years old, of No. 24 West Thirty-fifth street.

Adolph Savarese, twenty-four years old and a salesman, living at his residence at No. 24 West Thirty-fifth street, was the earliest one of the lot taken in. He imagined himself a floorwalker and thought all the shoppers were making "go-go" eyes at him.

James Forena, twenty-five years old, was in the act of injecting cocaine when the officers interfered with his pleasure. He was a wild-eyed individual when arraigned in the West Side Court today. He gave his address as No. 46 West End avenue.

The women were taken to the Women's Night Court and were held in $300 bail for further examination, after they came out of the trance produced by the opium. Magistrate McQuade sent Tangalus to the Workhouse for ten days.

Tangalus's place has been under surveillance for some time. The detectives found a quantity of cooked and uncooked opium in it and all of the paraphernalia of a smoking outfit.

This is a part of a crusade instituted by the local police against opium selling on the west side. For weeks a steady stream of visitors has been seen going into the house where the Tangalus lived.

RICH CLUBMAN DIES SUDDENLY IN ROOM AT HOTEL GOTHAM

Several Versions of Death of Carroll Bryce, Brother of Minister to Netherlands.

Carroll Bryce, a brother of Gen. Lloyd S. Bryce, recently appointed Minister to the Netherlands, died suddenly of apoplexy today in his apartments at the Hotel Gotham. Dr. I. L. Hill, the house physician, reported to the Coroner's Office that Mr. Bryce had died without medical attention. The manager of the hotel, however, declared to an Evening World reporter that Mr. Bryce died while Dr. Hill was striving to revive him.

According to one version offered at the hotel the millionaire clubman and society man was stricken while dressing. Another version was that he was stricken on while in bed; that his valet heard him breathing heavily and summoned assistance. Dr. Hill reported to the Coroner that there was nothing suspicious in the case.

Mr. Bryce was about fifty years old and a well known figure along Fifth avenue. His large fortune was invested for the most part in real estate and his only occupation was to collect his income. He was a bachelor. He was a brother of Mrs. Nicholas Fish.

For the past two years Mr. Bryce had been in poor health. He had lived at the Gotham for the past three winters, going abroad in the summer. He was a member of the Metropolitan—so-called the Millionaire's Club—the Racquette and Tennis Club and half a dozen others.

PERMANENT TARIFF BOARD
BURIED BY DEMOCRATS.

Majority of House Ways and Means Committee Refuses to Consider Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The Payne bill to create a permanent tariff board was brought up in the House Committee on Ways and Means today by Republican members, but the committee definitely postponed action through unanimous vote of the Democrats.

This probably shuts off consideration of the measure at this session.
